

Heritage Ottawa

CP/PO Box 510, Station B, Ottawa Ontario

AGENDA FOR GENERAL MEETING THIS MONDAY JANUARY *13th

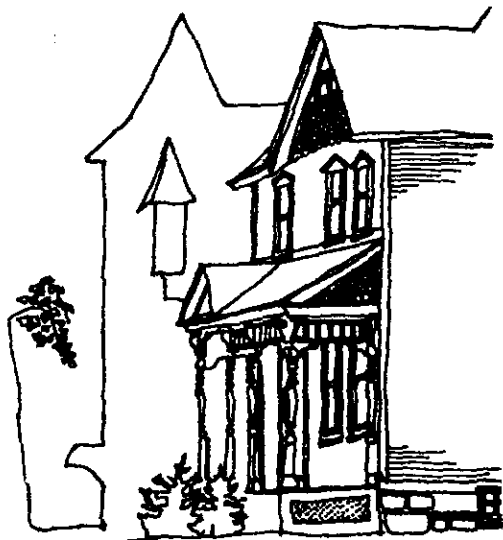

- Martin Weil discussing the newly-formed committees of Heritage Ottawa and some of their ambitious programs.
- Rev. Thompson will speak on the history of MACKAY UNITED church which is celebrating its centennial year.
- Cliff Ham, Heritage Officer for the City of Ottawa will talk on the present status of the Billings Estate.

*a brief discussion will follow

- Peter Pratt & Bill Naftel will talk on "THE CONSTRUCTION AND EVOLUTION OF THE RIDEAU CANAL."
- Peter is a Restoration Specialist and Bill is an Historian.

*discussion

THE MEETING WILL BE AT 8:00 p.m.
MACKAY UNITED CHURCH (corner of Dufferin)

23 Charles

- NEPEAN SPORTSPLEX
FEB. 27, 28, MARCH 1
Heritage Ottawa & Heritage Canada will share a booth to display slides and recent publications. The Walking Tours & East Block will be on sale.
- THE ONTARIO HERITAGE PROTECTION ACT is available for you to read and comment on. Contact any member of the executive at Mondays meeting.

bulletin no. 5 jan. 75
happy new year

● editorial:

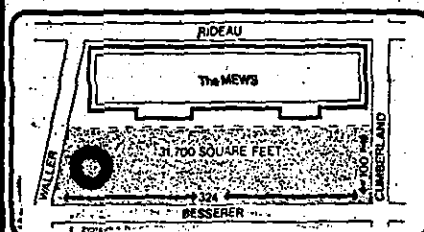

??????????

FOR SALE!

One-half of a city block

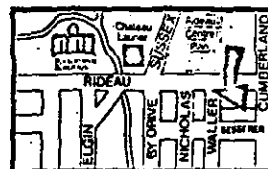

Approximately 31,700 Square Feet

*In the heart of Ottawa,
four blocks from Parliament Hill.*

An excellent location and part of the recently announced, "Rideau Centre Plan" by the Honourable John Turner. Through co-operation the Federal Government and the National Capital Commission will spend millions of dollars in revitalizing this historic area of Ottawa. Don't miss the opportunity of being here. Call today... this valuable property will not be available for long!

For more information
Telephone
Glenview Realty

GLENVIEW REALTY
LIMITED
237-4670

● HERITAGE DAY**

FEB. 17th

The City of Ottawa has given us the use of half of the foyer at City Hall, to mount a public display. It will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on weekdays and from 9 until 5 on weekends. So far it will contain a collection of early Ottawa maps lent by the E.B. EDDY CO. and many photographs of Ottawa's Heritage. The display will last from FEB. 2 until FEB. 16.

To get involved, call Eleanor Polk, or speak to someone at the meeting on Monday

OTTAWA THROUGH MAPS -this display of early Ottawa maps, will be open Jan. 11---21 at City Hall and then it will appear during HERITAGE WEEK at THE BAY (downtown).

newsletter

Heritage Ottawa

CP/PO Box 510, Station B, Ottawa Ontario

AGENDA FOR GENERAL MEETING THIS MONDAY JANUARY *13th

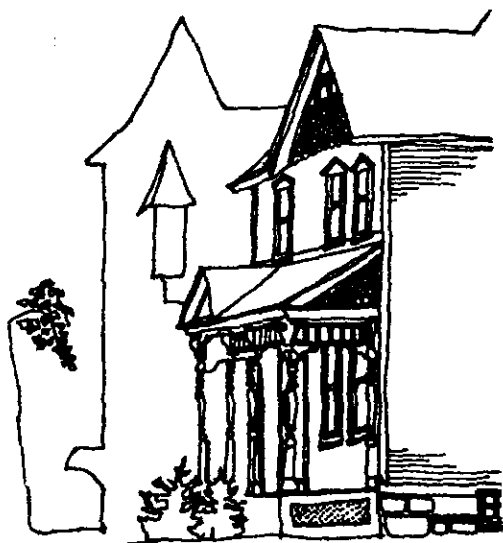

- Martin Weil discussing the newly-formed committees of Heritage Ottawa and some of their ambitious programs.
- Rev. Thompson will speak on the history of MACKAY UNITED church which is celebrating its centennial year.
- Cliff Ham, Heritage Officer for the City of Ottawa will talk on the present status of the Billings Estate.

*a brief discussion will follow

- Peter Pratt & Bill Naftel will talk on "THE CONSTRUCTION AND EVOLUTION OF THE RIDEAU CANAL."
- Peter is a Restoration Specialist and Bill is an Historian.

*discussion

THE MEETING WILL BE AT 8:00 p.m.
MACKAY UNITED CHURCH (corner of Dufferin)

23 Charles

- NEPEAN SPORTSPLEX
FEB. 27, 28, MARCH 1
Heritage Ottawa & Heritage Canada will share a booth to display slides and recent publications. The Walking Tours & East Block will be on sale.
- THE ONTARIO HERITAGE PROTECTION ACT is available for you to read and comment on. Contact any member of the executive at Mondays meeting.

bulletin no. 5 jan. 75
happy new year

● editorial:

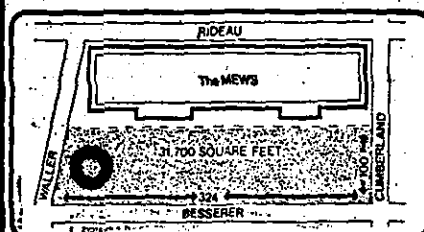

??????????

FOR SALE!

One-half of a city block

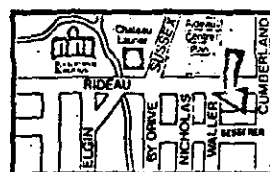

Approximately 31,700 Square Feet

*In the heart of Ottawa,
four blocks from Parliament Hill.*

An excellent location and part of the recently announced, "Rideau Centre Plan" by the Honourable John Turner. Through co-operation the Federal Government and the National Capital Commission will spend millions of dollars in revitalizing this historic area of Ottawa. Don't miss the opportunity of being here. Call today... this valuable property will not be available for long!

For more information
Telephone
Glenview Realty

GLENVIEW REALTY
LIMITED
237-4670

● HERITAGE DAY**

FEB. 17th

The City of Ottawa has given us the use of half of the foyer at City Hall, to mount a public display. It will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on weekdays and from 9 until 5 on weekends. So far it will contain a collection of early Ottawa maps lent by the E.B. EDDY CO. and many photographs of Ottawa's Heritage. The display will last from FEB. 2 until FEB. 16.

To get involved, call Eleanor Polk, or speak to someone at the meeting on Monday

OTTAWA THROUGH MAPS -this display of early Ottawa maps, will be open Jan. 11---21 at City Hall and then it will appear during HERITAGE WEEK at THE BAY (downtown).

newsletter

