HERITAGE FAIR

The participation of Heritage Ottawa in operating a booth at the fair has proven to be rewarding both financially and otherwise. The fair was attended by some 9,000 visitors and considerable interest was shown concerning Heritage Ottawa. There was a feeling that we had one of the nicest displays at the fair. Sales of our publications were good and the raffle of three copies of "The Last Block" by R.A.J. Phillips,
autographed by Rt. Hon. John Diefenbaker was successful. The winners are, (the envelope please!)

M. Oakley, Sr.
D. Bellman
N. Palmer

We wish to thank the volunteers who came out and assisted in the operation of the booth. They included Mrs. Audry Cook, Mrs. Gertrude Holt, Mrs. J. Bagnall,
Mrs. Sandy Atack, Mrs. Margaret Thompson,
Mrs. Hirsch, Mrs. Kidd, Miss J. Whitty,
Miss Mary Findlay, Mr. Stewart Lazear
and Mr. Martin Weil.

Special thanks go to Mr. Robert Haig of Haig & Haig Publishing with whom we shared the booth. Mr. Haig has donated $239.20 to Heritage Ottawa, a share of the profits from the sales of his publications at the fair.

ROYAL ARCHITECTURAL INSTITUTE OF CANADA

The R.A.I.C. is holding its annual convention at the Sheraton El Mirador Motor Inn in Ottawa in May 1976. Heritage Ottawa is arranging an exhibit of the work of Werner Nafke, Ottawa Architect 1878-1964 to be displayed in the Fraser Schoolhouse at that time, and will invite the convention goers to attend.

SETTING UP HOUSEKEEPING

We wish to thank those who have responded to our call for donations of furniture and equipment to help furnish our new offices at the Fraser Schoolhouse. In particular we wish to thank Wilson Office Specialties, 2080 Walkley Road, Ottawa
(filing cabinet); Mrs. Burns (typewriter);
Mr. Walter Turnbull (offset printing machine); Mr. William Thomas has donated a filing cabinet in the name of his mother, Mrs. Gladys Blair.

THE EAST BLOCK

There has been some criticism in the media recently about the proposals to restore the East Block, the pre-confederation building on Parliament Hill. Heritage Ottawa has felt obliged to prepare a statement defending restoration proposals. Look for it in your local newspaper soon.

EXHIBITIONS

Heritage Ottawa announces the following exhibitions which will be mounted at our Ottawa Heritage Gallery, the Fraser Schoolhouse, 62 John Street.

"PHOTOGRAPHS AND DRAWINGS OF HERITAGE BUILDINGS"

by Art Students,
High School of Commerce
Opening March 14, 1976

"BLACKSMITHING IN THE OTTAWA VALLEY"

Opening April 4, 1976

The Gallery is open every Saturday and Sunday, 1-5 p.m.

CHRISTOPHER ARMSTRONG HOUSE • ARMSTRONG STREET •

THE ARMSTRONG HOUSE

The City of Ottawa, on the advice of their Heritage Advisory Committee, has taken the initial steps to designate the Armstrong House as an Heritage Building under the terms of the Ontario Heritage Act. The process of designation continues. Congratulations to the Mayor and City Council!

HERITAGE HOME CLINIC POSTPONED

The proposed March 20th clinic on "How to care for your Heritage Home" has had to be postponed due to lack of volunteers to help carry out the program. If any members feel strongly about holding the clinic, or would like to volunteer to assist, please call Education Chairman, Elizabeth MacKenzie at 996-4065.

HERITAGE BUILDING TOUR

It looks like our Heritage Tour is going to be held on Saturday, September 18, 1976. Members who may wish to provide assistance may call the convenor, Mrs. Sandy Atack at 592-1368. We need the services of a designer who can help with preparation of the tickets and a map for the tour.

CORRECTION

Contrary to what you were told in the last newsletter, the telephone number at our office at the Fraser Schoolhouse is 745-0551. Please make a note.

SANDY HILL HERITAGE COMMITTEE

The Sandy Hill Citizens Committee has formed its own Heritage Committee under the leadership of Michael Tiger. Congratulations, Sandy Hill!

RIDEAU HALL

A series of five illustrated lectures by R.H. Hubbard entitled "Rideau Hall, A History of Government House, Ottawa in the Twentieth Century" will be delivered in the National Gallery Auditorium on Tuesday evenings at 8:30 p.m., March 9, 23, April 6, 27 and May 11. Admission free.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Directors of Heritage Ottawa are pleased to announce the recent election of Mr. Daniel Nicastro to the Board.

Mr. Bob Haig has accepted the position of Chairman of the Nominating Committee for the election of officers at the forthcoming annual general meeting.

GALLERY DOCENTS

Volunteers are required to serve as docents for the Heritage Ottawa Gallery. Please contact the Fraser Schoolhouse Chairman, Mr. Jerry White at 237-4560 or Executive Secretary, Mrs. Ann Braden at 728-2147. Docents are needed for the hours 1-5 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays. If we have enough volunteers, we can consider opening the gallery afternoons during the week.
