DISPLAYS

Join us for a leisurely stroll on Sunday, June 23, past 15 of New Edinburgh's most interesting buildings. You will enjoy the history and architecture of some of the oldest structures in this 150-year-old community within the City of Ottawa.

Then come back for refreshments on the lawn at the Fraser School House (62 John).

Guided tours will leave the School House every 20 minutes from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. Tour tickets/booklets are only $2.00 and may be purchased at the School House the day of the event. Each tour lasts 30 to 40 minutes. For further information, please call Heritage Ottawa at 745-0551.

This abbreviated Newsletter is sent out to remind you of Heritage Ottawa's upcoming Walking Tour of New Edinburgh. We hope you will attend--and will bring along your friends.

Soon, information about Heritage Ottawa's monthly activities will be available on tape. Just telephone the Schoolhouse (745-0551) and if no one is there to answer your call, the taped message will include details about the programme for the coming month(s).

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The 1985 Annual General Meeting, held May 27 in the L. B. Pearson Building auditorium, was a smashing success, with well over 100 in attendance. Main speaker Charles Lynch gave a humorous but often moving account of his own experience with the preservation of heritage buildings. Recently appointed to the board of Heritage Canada, he will be a very effective spokesman for the heritage movement across the country.

Heritage Ottawa Annual Awards Presented

Heritage Ottawa's awards for outstanding contributions to heritage conservation were presented to Judy Burns, former president of the Historical Society of Ottawa, and to Bill Keenan, former president and secretary-treasurer of Heritage Ottawa. (Bill came in from Toronto to accept the award, and was welcomed by numerous friends and former colleagues from Heritage Ottawa and Parks Canada.)

Raffle Winners

The AGM raffle proved very popular, mainly because of the excellent prizes offered.

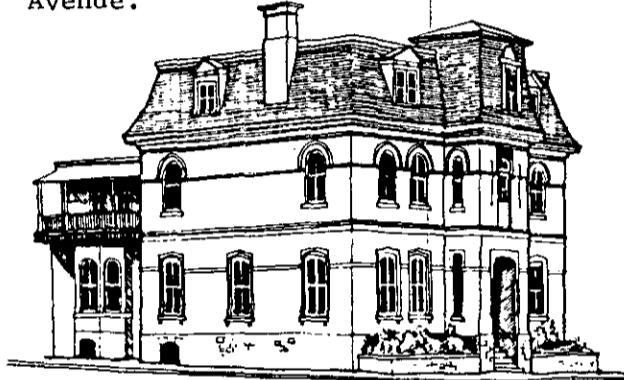

- Lin Baxter, president of the Lowertown West Community Association, won Lyette Fortin's original line drawing of 195 Nicholas Street (used to illustrate Our Architectural Ancestry by Lyette and John Leaning).

195 Nicholas (original sketch donated by Lyette Fortin)

- Gertrude Holt (a recipient last year of Heritage Ottawa's annual award) was a winner again this year--of a Garnet Hazard signed print donated by James McPherson of The McPherson Gallery at 724 Bank Street.

- Ron Robertson won the "Build Your Own Parliament Buildings" kit created and donated by Anthony Leaning of The Architectural Bookstore, 116 Third Avenue.

The Grant House (now Friday's Roast Beef House), drawn by Lyette Fortin

- Alderman Diane Holmes won the dinner for two courtesy of Friday's Roast Beef House, 150 Elgin Street.
